Constitutional Amendment for a State of the College Address

SPONSOR: Ed Leffler, Meghan Wallace

DATE: 2/26/14

Whereas: The campus is relatively unaware of SGA and its role on campus. Specifically students are unaware of the influence that the President of SGA has with Campus Administration.

Whereas: This climate is unsuitable to good governance over the student body, which the President of SGA was elected to serve as his/her top priority.

Whereas: Therefore, in an attempt to remedy this situation the President of SGA shall provide a speech on the “State of the College”

Be it Hereby Resolved, The Student Government Association of Rollins College will:

(1) Amend the Constitution as follows.

a. Article VII, Section I, B. I item v.: The President shall, from time to time, give to the Senate and the Student body information of the State of the College in a palpable, transmittable format that, when put on paper amounts to at least 1 normal full page of paper. The number of these addresses shall be set by the Senate yearly as one of its first acts of business. In the event that the senate is unable to decide on a schedule the President shall be free to set his own within the boundaries that there must at least be one (1) a semester and up to one (1) per month.

(2) For the purposes of the first address the senate shall decide on the schedule for the year of passage at the very next Senate session.

(3) Within 1 week of the address, in whatever format given to the Senate, the address must be transmitted to the entire student body by any executive officer that the president charges with such duties.

(4) Due to the gravity and importance of the expansion of SGA’s notoriety this Amendment shall be passed by Roll Call vote.
